

Meet the Teacher

Mrs. Ndiadia

About Me:

I am Mrs. Ndiadia and I am so excited to be your child's special education teacher year! I have been teaching special education at United since the 2022-23 school year. I grew up on a farm near Pocahontas, IA, moved to Ames to attend Iowa State, and now live in Ankeny with my husband. In my free time I enjoy playing piano, going for walks, and doing puzzles.

My Favorites:

Food: Pasta
Hobby: Piano
Store: Hobby Lobby
Flowers: Succulents
Drink: Iced Tea
Season: Winter
Sport: Basketball
Subject: Reading, History
Color: Blue
Book: The Chronicles of Narnia and The Magic Tree House series

Education:

I received my Elementary Education bachelor's degree in 2021 with endorsements in special education, reading, English/language arts, math, and social studies. I am currently pursuing a master's degree in Special Education.
