

Meet the teacher

introduction

My name is Taylor Nuehring and I am so excited to be spending my first year teaching apart of the United Community School District.

My family and I have lived in Boone for the past six years. My husband is an accountant at Iowa State University. We have two sons, Will (6) and Ollie (4) who attend school at Ledges Elementary.

Mrs. N

Contact me!

tnuehring@united.k12.ia.us

my favorites

Hobby : Reading & Crocheting

Drink : DrPepper & Coffee

Snack : Popcorn

Candy : Nerd Clusters

Music : Country & Taylor Swift

Color : Purple

College : UNI

Book : Chicka Chicka Boom Boom

before teaching

Before perusing my Early Childhood Education Degree I spent the last 9 years after graduating from UNI with a Family Services degree as a Prevention Program Coordinator at YSS, running my own in home daycare and working at Future Bulldogs Childcare as Supervisor and Assistant Director.

teaching Philosophy

I believe every child deserves a safe, happy, and fair place to learn, where their feelings and ideas are always important and valued. I promise to lead by example, mixing fun and kindness with clear routines and boundaries so your child grows strong socially, emotionally, and academically.